Since 1957, Hotel Restaurant Les Capucins is located in the old premises of Wagner breweries who prepared the beer of the Lion. It provides a rich cultural heritage.

Completely restructured and renovated in 2015, the building of character reveals behind its walls a resolutely contemporary to the decoration chic and refined in which we feel good.

This independent and family hotel proposes 37 functional and practical rooms all different, in sober and elegant tones, in raised subtly by touches of warm colors and trends.

The soothing colors are next a harmonious mix of fabrics and materials creating a unique atmosphere. From the furniture to the decoration, every detail was carefully thought to get you comfort and sweetness.

Every room is equipped of flat screen TV of 81 cm (32") minimum, with DTT, Canal +, BeInSport, international channels.

We can propose you rooms twin, triple, quadruples as well as connecting rooms.

The Restaurant

The restaurant has retained its character and authenticity of the early twentieth century. Majestic Venetian mirrors and the house decoration beautify this setting.

Our Chef prepares an inventive and refined cuisine with fresh and seasonal products. We propose an excellent combination of tastes from seafood, local and exotic fresh products.

For 17€ or more, the menu changes each season and the daily suggestions are renewed from market's ideas. Foodies and gourmets will find their happiness.

Please contact us, if you have any special menu request. We offer a 30€ and 39€ menu, and we will be so glad to respond any personalized request.

Our restaurant is open all week days and on week end for groups.

Annual closing during year-end holidays and 15 days in August.

The restaurant Les Capucins is recommended by the Michelin Guide and the Champérad Guide.
